

Does your child need some extra help?

Our Occupational Therapist's are able to work with children and young people both at home and at school, to help them become increasingly independent and gain confidence.

"Sensible, knowledgeable & understanding"

- Home assessments and interventions
- School access reports
- Treatment programmes
- Adaptation design
- Advice to schools
- And much more...

Contact Inclusion today for a free consultation to see how our experienced Occupational Therapist's can help you and your loved ones gain greater independence.
